COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The Town Office now has a supply of the Tax Relief for the Elderly forms. If a person applied last year they will receive one from Augusta.

The forms are not to be returned before Aug. 1. They must be filed between that date and Oct. 15. If it is inconvenient to pick one up at the office we would mail it if we are contacted.

We do not have a regular Plumbing Inspector which is creating problems locally. A person cannot be appointed until he has been certified by the State unless he is also a Code Enforcement Officer. We have not created the position as Code Enforcement Officer as yet although we know as one of the requirements of Shoreline Zoning we must. This, it would appear, will be more of a part-time job than most would want to undertake.

Until permanent arrangements can be made the alternative any one has if they require a plumbing permit is to contact the Town Office where every effort will be made to procure the necessary signatures. Anyone planning work of this nature must make application early as the people who must take the soil samples have to be brought in, sometimes quite distances.

LICENSE NEEDED TO SELL RAFFLE TICKETS IN MAINE —SAY STATE POLICE

Raffle tickets in Maine may be sold only when the raffle is licensed by the Chief, Maine State Police, a State Police spokesman has stated.

"Many local groups such as church groups, PTA's, etc., desiring to sponsor a raffle do not know they must be licensed," said Colonel Donald E. Nichols, Chief, Maine State Police, "although all organizations operating Bono or Bingo games know that they can sell raffle tickets providing they have both a valid Bono license and a valid raffle license."

Raffle chances can be sold only to people over 16 years of age, and each raffle chance may not exceed the amount of one dollar.

Groups interested in obtaining further information on raffles and licensing or other games of chance should write: Chief, Maine State Police, 36 Hospital Street, Augusta, Maine, 04330.

Miss R. R. Tabbeta is at her home on Main Street following surgery.

FINE WEATHER FAVORS SUCCESSFUL MOLLYCOKETT DAY LAST SATURDAY

Mollycokett Day boomed into Bethel last Saturday, bringing fine weather, record crowds, and a great spirit of fun and camaraderie. Everyone pitched in together for a common cause, and there was warmth and friendliness everywhere.

So many people helped that there is not space to print all their names, but here are a few: Cash donors—Ernest Angevine, Bethel Citizen, Bethel Furniture Stock, Bethel Inn, Bethel Savings Bank, Bethel Spa, Bob's Corner Store, Brooks Brothers, Brown's Variety, P. H. Chadbourne, Chapin's Shell, Bill Chapman, Charlie's Chevron, Clukey's Pharmacy, Early Real Estate, Fox's Tonsorial Parlor, Hanover Dowel, I. G. A., S. Klaus (Digt), Syl LeClair, Luce Oil Co., Martha's Restaurant, Rolfe's Apparel, Stowell Silk Spool, Sudbury Inn, Suni Ski Shop, True Value Hardware, Western Maine Lumber, Western Maine Supply, Window Box, Bob Crane Associates and Charlie's Place contributed special services.

The parade Saturday was one of the best in recent years, with numerous floats, including the beautiful aircraft carrier, U. S. S. Wasp. Float winners were as follows: First, Bethel Historical Society; Second, Paris Hill; Third, TOPS. If Paris Hill will get in touch with Sam Bigelow, Bethel Lions Club, he has a check for them.

Numerous young marchers brightened the procession up Main Street. Miss Michelle Seieraff, a visitor to Bethel from Connecticut, was awarded the prize for the prettiest marcher. Two youngsters, one with a hay cart and the other dressed as a farmer won the prizes for the funniest and most original. If these youngsters will identify themselves to Maurice Bouchard, Sam Bigelow or Mac Gould, Jr., their prizes are waiting.

Kathy Deegan of Bethel was a beautiful Mollycokett, following a tradition not hard to continue because of the great number of pretty girls in our area.

Elsewhere in this paper there are accounts in detail of the Maine Woodmen's Championship. We simply wish to state here that they put on a superb show that grabbed the attention of everyone who observed.

No account of Mollycokett Day would be complete without listing the hardworking groups that sponsored booths and worked in the vineyard all day. They are: Round Mountain Grange; Alder River Grange; Bethel Chamber of Commerce; Dolans for Scholars; Bethel Health Council; Methodist Church; Bethel Public Library; Newry Mothers Club; Snow Twisters Club; Boy Scouts, Troop #566; Legion, Mundt-Allen Post #81; Legion Auxiliary; Fancy Boomer; G. A. N. Sinitator Service; C. B. Commissioner; Tava Police; Deputies: Electricians; Mike O'Donnell; Bethel Rescue Squad.

All in all, it was a great day. The Bethel Lions Club wants to thank everyone for their generosity, industry and dedication.

LUMBERJACKS DRAW CROWD AT MOLLYCOKETT DAY JULY 20

"Welcome to the second annual Maine Open Woodsmen's Championships," and announcer John Percival got this year's show underway.

The show took on a professional air as contestants bustled around in attire varying from crisp white pants to dungarees cut off and log ger boots. Each dress professional in its own way. Once again they got off to a fast start with the chainsaw steeplechase. Even though the field was considerably smaller the action was there. Ira Stevens, Perkinsville, Vt., finished the course in a lightning 30.1 seconds to capture the trophy, a good 4.9 seconds ahead of second place winner Gib Engel, Jewett City, Conn.

Two Bethel contestants, Carroll Murphy and Larry Smith took 4th and 6th place ribbons in the event.

Backsawing saw one of the best performances of the day as Gilles Levesque, one of five competitors from Quebec made one cut off the 10" by 10" pine timber in 8.4 seconds, a good 2.6 seconds ahead of last year's fastest time. In second place was Bob Hoffman, East Calais, Vt., with 11.2 seconds only 1 of a second ahead of 3rd place winner Pete McGuire, West Hempstead, N. Y.

The next event saw the lumberjacks assemble in back of the announcer's stand with their cantosaws awaiting their turn to roll the log placed on the Common earlier that day. Out of seven pairs of log rollers, Phil Cayford, Freedom, N. H., and Rus-Van Hazinga, Fitzburg, Mass., took first place with a time of 20.1 seconds. Right behind them were Alan Chapman, Bethel and Ira Stevens, Perkinsville, Vt., who rolled the log in 20.5 seconds.

Watching two men operate a rescue saw is indeed beautiful but to see a team of two men cut off two complete sections of a 10" by 10" timber in 9.5 seconds is something else! But, Sven Johnson, 1972 World Champion Lumberjack, and his 18 year old son, Ron, Jewett City, Conn., did just that. Right behind them with 10.7 seconds were Claude Pelyt and Florent Chantal, Quebec.

41 TONS OF TRANSFORMER —

A 82,000 pound transformer (center above) was off-loaded Tuesday morning from a railroad flat car on the Bethel Grand Trunk Railway siding to a Merrill Transportation Company trailer. The transformer is to be utilized at a Central Maine Power Company substation on Route 232 in Woodstock.

The sound of the supersaws being warmed up announced the next event. Again the field was smaller but none the less exciting. Bethel claimed two winners. Alan Chapman walked away with the trophy, having completed his three cuts on the 20" round wood in 13.6 seconds. Larry Smith claimed the fifth place ribbon.

Another fast moving event is the chopping and that can be proven by Sven Johnson's winning time. Sven chopped through the 10" by 10" timber in 17.8 seconds. Jim Colbert, Brookfield, Conn., was second with a time of 20 seconds flat.

Winding up the day again this year was the tree felling. This year 20 spruce poles were felled in times varying from 2 1/4 minutes to 30 seconds! Accuracy chooses the winner in this event with time used when there is more than one direct hit of the dovel driven into the ground by the pole. Alan Chapman, Bethel, managed that one direct hit and it took him only 36.3 seconds to do it. Right behind him with 1.1" from the dovel was Matt new Sullivan, Canton, Mass., and Carroll Murphy, Bethel. Matthews time of 30 seconds grabbed him the red ribbon and Carroll's 1 minute and 5 seconds gave him third place.

After the events were over and the final accounting in Jim Colbert, Brookfield, Conn., was awarded Lumberjack of the Day trophy. Ira Stevens, Perkinsville, Vt., was only 1 point behind him for the special award.

Miss Mollycokett (Kathy Deegan) presented the trophies and ribbons to the lumberjacks at the close of the show.

Special thanks to our judges, Dave Myers, Alanson Lovejoy and Jim Young, veterans from last year, and Bryce Yates, Dana Bean, and Dick Angevine, our newcomers. A complete list of contributors and helpers will be released at a later date.

Miss Irene Wight, West Hartford, Conn., is spending some time in town.

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Collette Morgan, Corrae. —

On a day of sunshine and glorious clouds Ruth and I set out for Evans Notch to take a trail we had never tried. Our book said, "Easy, five miles." Just what we wanted for this day.

A car can carry you far with beautiful country streaming behind you but your freedom is limited. You must keep to the highway. No cut-across with car and across-lots was what we were most interested in.

Parking the car then leaving the main highway we were immediately in the woods. The trail stretched away bordered by dark forests with the sunshine sprinkling through. Here we could breathe deeply the pure air and enjoy the silence of the forest.

Not far from the road we heard the ripple of water and found that we must cross the brook. Then again we followed the carpeted trail. We walked soundlessly on moist plush ground. Treadstools rose from the rich humus and attached themselves to logs, long ago giants of the woods.

We enjoyed the brilliant greens of the mosses and ferns. Again reverberating music and clear pools. We must cross to keep our trail.

Beautiful contrasts we met everywhere: colors of trees and flowers, rocks and sky, light and shade, strength and frailty.

For some time we followed the brook with its enchanting language and bouncing current or a smooth, downy hush of shallows feeling their way through the thickets.

What? Another crossing! Lucky there were rocks on which to step.

We found, as last July, when on our trail to Baldpate, the oxalis everywhere. Its dainty carpeting of clover-like foliage studded with rose-veined blossoms were all along the way. I have read that the delicate leaflets "sleep" at night. That is, they droop and close one against the other.

Another brook crossing! Then four others before we left it to turn right among the birches.

Maine and New Hampshire give us the mossy forest trails, ancient music of the brooks and wind, stretches of forests without roads and houses, areas where one might stay lost for days or perhaps forever.

In all this great forest we saw few birds, no squirrels or chipmunks; just two toads, who never joined the weight watchers, hiking the trail as we were.

We sat on a flat rock at the top of a ridge at noon to eat our lunch.

CARD OF THANKS

This is just a small note of thanks to all the wonderful people who helped to brighten my stay while in the hospital. For the flowers, fruit baskets and cards especially from those people I didn't know. Also a great thanks to the staff at Stephens Memorial Hospital and Dr. Andalkar, who gave me excellent care. — Carolyn M. Colby, Corrae. —

Jim and Peggy Gilbert and four children, Westbrook, were at his folks one day last week.

Mary Mills was home Friday and Saturday.

The neighborhood children enjoyed riding with Denny and Rita Wilson in their Model A in the Molycockett Day Parade.

The community extends its sympathy to the family of George Fuller who passed away last week.

Earl, the boys, and I were at Kittery Sunday afternoon and then had supper with Marian Dumont in Portland.

Steve Wilson and Marc Packard called on Irene Wilson, Monday.

"Before you flare up at anyone's faults, take time to count ten — of your own."

As we looked skyward a few minutes after we were really surprised. There behind the trees, heedless of everything going around them, stood giant cliffs. In order to see them well we had to leave the trail, which we did. "One must labor for beauty as well as for bread." Ferns and plants thatched the cliffs with soft grace.

Refreshed and rested we now followed the trail again until it began to descend then we turned back, reluctantly, for a trail unfinished taxes our powers of decision. Each new turn promises a fresh surprise. Just one more bend! However our better judgement made us turn back.

These landmarks we remembered: two trees growing on boulders, managing to draw sufficient moisture and food from the craggy soil to maintain good health; the brook crossings, a huge knot on a tree studded with toadstools; so different that we took a picture of it and a fern-boulder in midstream; a gray vase topped with greenery and spilling over the sides.

We arrived home about four o'clock. I then mowed my lawn, another hour of walking, where I could watch mother duck with her family of eight swim among the pickered weeds and the muskrat dive and surface far from Haystack Trail.

Nancy Hutton, Stratham, N. H., is visiting Ann Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morris were at their camp on Aziscoos Lake for a few days last week.

Fay and Ann Holt, Nancy Hutton, and Collette Morgan attended the clam festival in Yarmouth on Friday. They also called on Donna Morgan Smith at her home.

Zulpha DiArenzo was in town on Saturday for a short time and called on friends then returned to Pennsylvania.

The Hayes boys were home Saturday to help with haying.

Robert Holt and family, Windsor, were at the Holts on Sunday.

SUNDAY RIVER

— Mrs. R. M. Fleet, Corrae. —

Bear River Grange will have scramble officers night in its chairs at its next meeting.

The Paris Farmers Union truck was in town Thursday from South Paris.

Russell Yates took his parents to Bear Pond to see some relatives one day this week.

Coons are bothering the henhouses in this neighborhood recently. Jack Dennis lost three hens before he got it. And Roland Fleet has lost one and is waiting for the return call.

The blue jays are also robbing the smaller birds' nests, killing their young to feed their own young.

Debbie and Sharon, called on Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Davis Saturday. The Herne's had been spending a week at Cozy Nook and returned to Harvard, Mass., Saturday through the White Mountains. They toured the farm and looked at some of the paintings Mrs. Davis has done.

Miss Mary Briggs and friends spent Sunday with Mrs. Helvi Tucci at North Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Waltem and Diane, Paris, called on Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Davis Saturday night at Cozy Nook.

Ralph Tucci returned to his work in Littleton, Mass., after a three weeks vacation.

Percy Jefferson is staying at his camp on North Pond for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Davis went to Turner Sunday night with Raymond Chapman, West Paris, to the New England Conference rehearsal which was held in the Turner Grange Hall.

Ken Thompson hot topped Ellis Davis' driveway Tuesday. He did a real good job with a real heavy topping. We hope it discourages the ants from coming through for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell and family took a few trips during their vacation. One day they went to Bailey's Island, and another day they went to Portland Headlight which was a beautiful trip. The boats were coming in and out of the harbor all day. Sunday night they went to the Summer Spectacular at Lewiston. Vacation is over and back to the old grind again until another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Guyson Davis entertained Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Packard, Waterville, Saturday night at a supper party.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith, Roxbury, called on Mr. and Mrs. Guyson Davis Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mary Brown is spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Guyson Davis.

CARD OF THANKS

My sincere thanks to my many friends who remembered me with gifts, flowers, prayers, and good wishes while I was hospitalized and since my return home. A special "thank you" to my sisters and their husbands, Florice and Louis Paul, Sylvia and Alton Luxton, Dorothy and Lorimer Schmidt, and to their families, too. My mother and I are deeply grateful for their help.

The members of TOPS did so many thoughtful things. The "gift-a-day" box, the daily cards, the visits, the phone calls, the birthday greetings upon my return home helped to speed my recovery. Thank you all.

BELL HILL ANNUAL SERVICE
IN OTISFIELD, JULY 28

The annual divine service at the historic Bell Hill Meeting House in Otisfield (off Hy. 121) will be held on July 28 at 2:30 p. m. The speaker will be the Reverend Edward L. Fenderson, Pastor of the Calvary United Methodist Church of Lewiston. Music will be furnished by the choir of Clark Memorial United Methodist Church, Portland, with Clifford Pike conducting.

The Bell Hill Church had its origin in the plans of the Proprietors drawn up in Boston in 1773. The present Meeting House, which was built in 1839, replaced an earlier structure built in 1795. Beside the church is Otisfield's last surviving one-room district schoolhouse, likewise built in 1839. This recently restored building will also be open on Bell Hill Day, which is observed each year on the last Sunday in July.

The speaker at the church service, Mr. Fenderson, grew up in the Portland area, attended Deering High School, the U. of M., and the School of Theology at Boston University. He is currently working on a program for the Master's degree through the New York Theological Seminary. He has been a former pastor of the Congress Street United Methodist Church and an associate pastor of the Chestnut Street United Methodist Church in Portland. For six years he has been pastor of the Calvary United Methodist Church in Lewiston. Mr. Fenderson is President of the Board of Directors of the Alliance for Better Housing in Lewiston, President of the Inter-Faith Clergy Association of Lewiston and Auburn, Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Masons in Maine, and Chaplain of Kora Shrine Temple in Lewiston.

The public is cordially invited to attend this annual service.

The Best Way To Save Energy
Is By Calling Your Oil Dealer.

Unbelievable or not, the fact is, we can do a great deal to save energy, and in the process save you money.

FACT: oil heat directly fired saves 3 times the oil it takes to generate the same heat by electricity or any other indirect energy source.

FACT: most oil burners could use a quick inexpensive tune up that could save you 20% or more each year. Like all appliances, your oil furnace needs a little maintenance to run more efficiently. It will run cleaner too.

FACT: Our company wants to do all we can to save you money. Give us a call, we will be glad to show you how to use less of a good thing.
